

I understand how difficult it is to be looking for a job. It's frustrating for you, and it's a terrible loss for our community. The fact is, we need you. Our economy needs you. The greatest asset the American economy has is the American worker.

On March 6, I held two Jobs Training and Opportunities Fairs in the Hudson Valley to help jobseekers connect with employment specialists and local employers. For those who could not make the event, I created a Job Seekers' Handbook to provide Hudson Valley residents who are seeking work with access to a variety of programs that are available to help. I urge you to take advantage of this resource. Please let me know what else I can do to assist you in your search.
